NEW FILM SERIES AT BMAC LAUNCHES SEPTEMBER 3

Monthly Post-Gallery Walk Screenings to Showcase Art-Related Films

Brattleboro, Vt.—Brattleboro's popular monthly Gallery Walk winds down at 8:30 p.m., but the art-related fun doesn't need to end there. Beginning Friday, September 3, the Brattleboro Museum & Art Center is launching a new series of art-related film screenings that get underway just as Gallery Walk comes to a close. The first film in the series is "Years in the Making," which will be shown at the museum at 8:30 p.m. Admission is $5. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, visit www.brattleboromuseum.org or call 802-257-0124.

A visually beautiful and uplifting film, "Years in the Making" examines the lives and work of professional artists between the ages of 70 and 95 years old, who share insights into the creative process as they face the challenges of aging. According to filmmaker Martin West, the 66-minute film "captures their passion for art and life" and explores "what makes us tick and how we keep going despite infirmities and in the face of devastating human experiences." "Years in the Making" has won numerous Best Documentary and First Prize awards at film festivals around the country.

Major support for the Brattleboro Museum & Art Center's 2010-2011 season is provided by BMAC members and Entergy Vermont Yankee, Foard Panel, C&S Wholesale Grocers, Sam's Outdoor Outfitters, and Chittenden Bank. The Museum's exhibits and gift shop are open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Tuesday and Wednesday. Regular admission is $6 for adults, $4 for seniors, and $3 for students. Members and children 5 and under are admitted free of charge.

Founded in 1972, the Brattleboro Museum & Art Center presents art and ideas in ways that inspire, educate, and engage people of all ages. Each season features compelling new exhibits of contemporary artwork by regional and internationally acclaimed artists, complemented by lectures, artist talks, film screenings, and other public programs. Located in historic Union Station in downtown Brattleboro, at the intersection of Main Street (Route 5) and Routes 119 and 142, the Museum is wheelchair accessible.
